

Save the Date!

Preparedness, Response, Recovery: The First Step is Listening

www.acl.gov

The Administration for Community Living wants to hear and learn from older adults, people with disabilities, your families and caregivers, about your experiences with emergencies or disaster situations. We want to learn how you plan, respond, and recover from these challenging situations. Listening Sessions will help us to understand how we can improve our support, training, and technical assistance in times when emergencies and disasters hit our nation.

Date: Thursday, March 5, 2020

Time: 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM, ET

Location: Self-Advocacy Association of NYS, 25 Beaver Street, Room 642, New York, NY 10004

Please note: You must enter the building using the Visitor's entrance at 60 Broad Street (just around the corner). A photo ID is required to enter the building. Once you are inside the building, there will be signs and staff to guide all visitors to the correct elevator bank that will take you to the meeting room.

Event Description: Older adults, people with disabilities, family members and caregivers will participate in a group discussion where questions in the areas of preparedness, evaluation, response and recovery will be asked one at a time by a facilitator and answered one at a time by the participants

To Register: Click here ACL Listens website or call 301-588-6046

To Provide Written Comments: Click here ACL Listens website or email alston@sidemgroup.com

More Information: alston@sidemgroup.com or 240-650-8298

Administration for Community Living

Advancing independence, integration, and inclusion throughout life